POPULATION FACTS

Population

- Based on the 2013 census, the Asian population in the North Shore region* was 24.0% up from 17.8% in 2006. The Asian population is growing significantly and is the second largest ethnic group behind after NZ Europeans/Pākehā.
- They are primarily made up of four key ethnic groups: Chinese, Korean, Indian and Filipino groups.
- 42.7% of North Harbour's Asian population are Chinese, making it the largest Asian group with over 23,500 people. This is followed by Koreans at 19.5% and Indians at 13.0%.

- The Filipinos are the most rapidly growing Asian migrant group between the 2006 and 2013 censuses with a 92.1% growth.

North Harbour Region

Ethnic group resident population count for Filipino, Chinese, Indian & Korean (2006 & 2013 census)

Ethnic Group	Year		% growth
	2006	2013
Filipino	2,799	5,376	92.1%
Chinese	17,004	23,502	38.2%
Indian	5,238	7,128	36.1%
Korean	10,224	10,731	5.0%

The North Shore Region covers the three Local Board Areas that has the highest Asian population: Upper Harbour, Kaipatiki & Devonport-Takapuna. This is to keep it in consistent with the area covered in the North Shore City's 2006 Census for comparison.*

Growing population

- The numbers of people born in Asia and resident in New Zealand increased by 98.1% from 2001-2013. Chinese and Indians were the dominant Asian populations contributing to this growth.
- In the North Harbour Region there was a 31.73% growth from 2006 to 2013 in the Asian Population.
- The biggest population growth in numbers was amongst people aged 25-44 years old, but the fastest growth was amongst the 75+ year olds.
- It is predicted that the growth rate of this group will continue to increase with over 400,000 Asians predicted to be living in Auckland by 2016 (Spoonley and Taiapa, 2009).

Age

- 34% of Asians are between 25-44 years old, with over 18,909 Asian people from that age group living in the North Harbour Region.
- Percentages were much higher for children and young adults (0-24 years) at a combination of 37%, compared to older adults (65+) at 6%.
